The Kentucky Lions Eye Foundation Will Announce
Miss Basketball Today, 2:50 p.m.
Lexington Christian Academy High School
450 W. Reynolds Road, Lexington, Kentucky

Louisville, KY—The Kentucky Lions Eye Foundation will announce the newest Miss Basketball at a news conference this afternoon, 2:50 p.m. at Lexington Christian Academy High School.

The 2010 Kentucky High School All-Star Game is set for June 11 at Bellarmine University's Knights Hall in Louisville. Since 1939, the All-Star game has showcased the best basketball talent from each state. The game benefits the Kentucky Lions Eye Foundation.

On Friday, June 11th, the girls will tipoff at 5:30 p.m. immediately followed by the boys' game. Additional Kentucky team and media information will be available at www.kyallstars.net. The Indiana games will follow on Saturday, June 12th at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

Girl's Team Coaches

Head Coach – Tommy Adams, Hart County High School
Assistant Coach – Chris Stallings, Bullitt East High School

All-Star Tryouts, April 16th – 17th at Campbellsville University

The Kentucky Lions Eye Foundation, located in Louisville Kentucky, is a non-profit organization with the mission to prevent and cure blindness by supporting eye research, operating eye clinics, eye screenings and eye banks.
